

26 July 2018

MEDIA STATEMENT

AMP Sole MMO Recognised for Promoting Quality Work-Life Integration & Rewards at Annual Singapore HR Awards

1. The Association of Muslim Professionals (AMP) is honoured to be the only Malay/Muslim organisation conferred the Leading HR Practices (Special Mention) in Total Rewards, and Leading HR Practices in Quality Work-Life Integration awards at the 13th Singapore HR Awards recently. AMP had made a submission to be considered for the awards when the new Not-for-Profit Category was introduced for the Awards this year.
2. AMP was one of six non-profit organisations that received awards for commendable human resource practices and policies presented by the Singapore Human Resources Institute (SHRI) at the Presentation Gala on 20 July 2018 at Marina Bay Sands.
3. Receiving the Awards on behalf of AMP, Executive Director, Mr Mohd Anuar Yusop, said, “AMP recognises the importance of work-life balance and facilitates work arrangements to make our workplace a conducive environment for our staff to work efficiently. The Awards reaffirm our commitment to develop our workforce, which is a key asset to the organisation, so that we remain progressive and well-equipped in serving the needs of our clients and beneficiaries.”
4. Some of the commendable human resource practices and policies by AMP include flexible work arrangements such as telecommuting from home when the need arises, scholarships and support for skills upgrading, exposure in media and networking platforms, as well as biennial overseas staff retreat and short trips to foster staff bonding.

END