AMP's Response to Repeal of Section 377A

1. AMP Singapore is concerned about the Government's decision to repeal Section 377A of the Penal Code and the immediate and long-term impact the repeal can have on our society. However, AMP supports the Government's decision to protect the legal definition of marriage by amending the Constitution.
2. We welcome the Government's assurance to protect the family institution in Singapore. One of AMP's core focus areas is in strengthening families and as such, we are hopeful of the Government's continued commitment towards building strong families in the society.
3. AMP would like to also urge the Muslim community to remain calm and maintain civility when discussing this issue. Where there is discourse, it is our hope that it is respectful and accepting of differences in opinion.
